Grammar and Punctuation

Coordinating Conjunctions

Words that connect two phrases or clauses of equal weight (they make sense on their own).

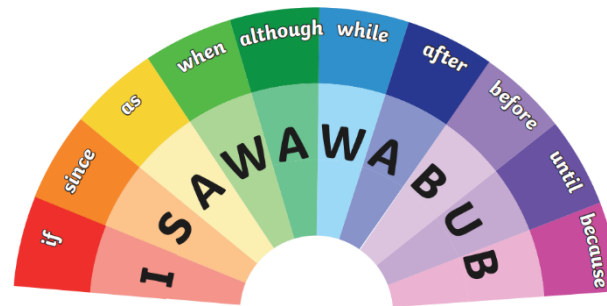

I wanted to ride my bike. The tyre was flat.

Becomes:

I wanted to ride my bike but the tyre was flat.

Subordinating Conjunctions

Words used at the start of a subordinate clause (a clause that needs the main clause in order for it to make sense).

We went to London when I was seven.

Main clause (makes sense by itself).

After the film, we went shopping.

The Tenses

The tense of a verb shows if something is happening in the present, past or future.

The Progressive Form

The progressive form is a verb tense used to show an ongoing action in progress at some point in time.

Present Progressive —> Azran is studying right now.

Past progressive —> Azran was studying when they came.

Future progressive —> Azran will be studying when you come.

Noun Phrases

Table —> The table —> The small table.
Noun Add a determiner. Add an adjective.

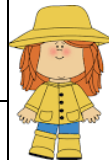

Commas in a list

Commas are used to separate items in a list.
In this lesson I must have a pencil, scissors, paper and a ruler.

Note: The last item on the list is always separated by 'and'

Apostrophes

An apostrophe used to show singular possession:

The girl's hat. The hat that belongs to the girl.

You can also use apostrophes to show that you have omitted (left out) some letters when you are joining words together.

Did not —> Didn't

The apostrophe replaces the omitted letter 'o'.

Suffixes

Using suffixes (-ness, -ful, -less, -er, -est and -ly) to create new words.

Happy- happiness
Care-careful
Hope- hopeless

Fast- faster
Small- smallest
Slow- slowly
