

Subject: Computing		Year group: 3 Term: Spring 1		Title: Digital Research
What should I know? <ul style="list-style-type: none">That technology can give rapid access to a wide variety of information and resources, including internet, TV, DVDsThat a website has a unique address and the need for precision when typing itThe importance of giving an appropriate name to files that can then be stored on the computerThat files can be retrieved from their location and edited 		Facts I will learn ... <ul style="list-style-type: none">That information found as a result of a search can vary in relevanceThat provision is made in schools to filter when and where the internet can be used as a research toolThat people can represent themselves in different ways onlineThat people may change their identity online depending on what they are doingTo be careful before sharing information onlineTo use key phrases in search engines to gather accurate informationTo know what autocomplete isTo know the difference between a belief, fact, opinion		Key questions ... <ul style="list-style-type: none">How does the school filter protect us when we search the internet?Which search engines are child friendly?How can I check that the information I have found on a website is accurate?How can I save my search and then retrieve it again later?How might people online change their identity?What key phrase could we use to search for...?Is this a fact, belief or opinion?
Key Skills... <ul style="list-style-type: none">To explore a range of child friendly search engines to locate different		Experiences that school will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none">The opportunity to explore different child friendly search engines and research a		Key vocab Definition <table><tr><td>Research</td><td>To study something carefully to discover new facts</td></tr></table>		Research	To study something carefully to discover new facts
Research	To study something carefully to discover new facts

media, e.g. text, images, sounds or videos <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To evaluate different search engines and explain their choices in using these for different purposes• To develop key questions and key words to search for specific information to answer a problem• To consider the effectiveness of key questions on search results and refine where necessary• To use strategies to verify the accuracy and reliability of information, distinguishing between fact and opinion, e.g. cross checking with different websites or books• To use appropriate tools to save and retrieve accessed information FACT OR OPINION?	topic 	<table><tr><td>Search Engine</td><td>A search engine is a service that allows Internet users to search for content via the World Wide Web (WWW). A user enters keywords or key phrases into a search engine and receives a list of Web content results in the form of websites, images, videos or other online data.</td></tr><tr><td>Avatar</td><td>A picture of a person or an animal that represents a particular computer user</td></tr><tr><td>Fact</td><td>A thing that is known or proved to be true.</td></tr><tr><td>Opinion</td><td>A view or judgement formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge.</td></tr><tr><td>Identity</td><td>Who or what somebody/something is</td></tr><tr><td>Search</td><td>To look carefully for something/somebody</td></tr><tr><td>Autocomplete</td><td>A piece of software that completes a word when you have typed the first few letters</td></tr></table>	Search Engine	A search engine is a service that allows Internet users to search for content via the World Wide Web (WWW). A user enters keywords or key phrases into a search engine and receives a list of Web content results in the form of websites, images, videos or other online data.	Avatar	A picture of a person or an animal that represents a particular computer user	Fact	A thing that is known or proved to be true.	Opinion	A view or judgement formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge.	Identity	Who or what somebody/something is	Search	To look carefully for something/somebody	Autocomplete	A piece of software that completes a word when you have typed the first few letters
Search Engine	A search engine is a service that allows Internet users to search for content via the World Wide Web (WWW). A user enters keywords or key phrases into a search engine and receives a list of Web content results in the form of websites, images, videos or other online data.
Avatar	A picture of a person or an animal that represents a particular computer user
Fact	A thing that is known or proved to be true.
Opinion	A view or judgement formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge.
Identity	Who or what somebody/something is
Search	To look carefully for something/somebody
Autocomplete	A piece of software that completes a word when you have typed the first few letters
Web links https://www.kiddle.co/ https://www.alarms.org/kidrex/	Experiences that could be provided at home... <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Carrying out safe online searches using child friendly search engines to research rocks or volcanoes															