Approximately 493 million people around the world speak Spanish as their first language. This makes Spanish the second most spoken native language in the world, after Mandarin Chinese.

Grammar

When you ask a question in Spanish, your voice goes up at the end as you say the question.

Grammar

In Spanish, colours come after the noun they describe, not before like in English. For example, you say “el río azul” (“the river blue”), not “the blue river .”
