The School is just amazing and my daughter just love it.

This is a great school my children are thriving and are happy to be at school. The teachers are always helpful, and address any concerns appropriately.

I've had all my children in saint pauls my eldest came here from 2005 and she has now enrolled my grandson [REDACTED] mrs wells has always been a massive support and I'm so glad she is finally head teacher

I feel like reception should have an art/craft club for them to explore their creativity and imagination and it may help them develop better artistic skills as they grow up. Also it may give children with anger/emotional issues an outlet to express themselves and deal with their issues in a better way than acting out or shutting off which overall could help them to deal with their anger issues etc in a better way as they grow up 😊

Really helpful n supportive staff.overall positive n good environment in school.

This school has really helped my little one blossom and since mrs wells as head I have seen him thriving

Respect the school

Really I am very happy to send my child in this school.

V[REDACTED] started a couple of weeks ago and has settled quickly and thinks the school is brilliant

Though this has been resolved now, I feel [REDACTED] was denied having his Tuck for weeks even after ringing the school and sending an email to explain that we have long paid for this before school started. This made him sad that he wasn't getting any whilst his parents at home were saying we have paid. This has led to [REDACTED] losing trust in our word as his parents. Thank you for finally resolving this.

Amazing staff and learning atmosphere. Wouldn't take my kids anywhere else.

Let me offer my heartfelt gratitude all the staff since my child finds it extremely happy with the school

Further I find her enthusiasm and need to be attending regularly without getting absent.

Fantastic school, [REDACTED] loves the school and all the lessons, she's really enjoying doing spanish and learning new words. Super happy with this school

[REDACTED] is happy here 😊 we love assembly really sets a community feel amongst the kids and recognises and rewards hard work and good behaviour

Would the paid after school care include the children to have tea as tea time at home is between 4:30-5:30pm

Couldn't be any happier with [REDACTED] progress, please keep me updated regarding the after school club :)

I wish the school to be successful in each and every endeavour in the days to come,

At the moment I have childcare for after school but would be handy for a lot of working parents
